LA SALLE UNIVERSITY'S WEEKLY INFORMATION CIRCULAR

The La Salle Singers welcomes its new director Dean Rishel

Oct. 10, 2003

and invites you to meet him on

Wednesday, October 15

3:30-4:30

Music Room, 2nd floor Union

Dean Rishel was the Artistic Director of the Greater South Jersey Chorus from 1993 to 2000 and Conductor of the Princeton Opera from 1989 to 1994, conducting such operas as Hansel & Gretel, The Magic Flute, Don Giovanni, and The Mikado. A tenor himself, he also sang in the chorus of the Opera Company of Philadelphia from 1979 to 1982.

Mr. Rishel has a M.A. in choral conducting from the College of New Jersey and a BME from Westminster Choir College. He is a published composer, having both original works and arrangements published by Carl Fischer Music and Shawnee Press, including his "magnus opus" REQUIEM FOR THE CHILDREN, a work honoring the children killed in the Oklahoma City bombing. This work premiered at the Tweeter Center in Camden in May 1996 and was later performed in Oklahoma City and elsewhere.

Light refreshments will be served.

Campus News is distributed weekly to foster communication and encourage information sharing among University departments. VICE PRESIDENT FOR ENROLLMENT SERVICES
PHILADELPHIA, PA 19141 • (215) 951-1079

October 3, 2003

To: The Campus Community

From: Ray Ricci, Vice President, Enrollment Services

Re: Opening Fall Enrollment

On the following pages are tables summarizing the opening fall enrollment recorded on the census date by the Registrar's Office. My thanks go to Mike Payne, Associate Registrar, for standardizing these reports, presenting them so clearly, and helping us to draw comparisons among years. Thanks, too, to all of you who have generously involved yourself in our recruitment programs. Some highlights follow:

- University-wide

- Total enrollment (5,937) increased 3% versus last year and 10% versus five years ago. This is the highest enrollment since 1991.
- The University received 6,937 applications for admission for all programs – day, evening and graduate – an 11% increase versus last year and a 52% increase versus five years ago.
- The University enrolled 1,649 new students in all programs – day, evening and graduate – a 4% increase versus last year and a 28% increase versus 1998.

- Undergraduate Full-time Programs

- This was the largest freshman applicant pool in our history (4,559) and the largest transfer applicant pool in our history (524).
- Our goal for the year was to enroll 930 new students: 810 freshmen and 120 new transfers. We actually enrolled 959 new students: 811 freshmen and 148 new transfers.
- The mean SAT score of the entering class – including all provisional admission categories, international students and other special groups – increased 19 points to 1099.
- The acceptance rate was reduced from 77% to 73%.
- Overall day enrollment fell by .6% versus last year. The decline was due to an increase in attrition particularly among last year's freshman class.

- Evening and Graduate Programs

- Undergraduate evening enrollment (including Nursing) increased 5% versus last year but is down 10% versus five years ago.
- Undergraduate evening enrollment increases are fueled largely by enrollment gains in the School of Nursing (up 20% versus last year) and growth in the BUSCA program.
- Graduate enrollment increased 9% versus last year and 23% versus 1998. Current graduate enrollment is the largest in La Salle history.
- Evening programs enrolled 214 new students versus a fall goal of 150.
- Graduate programs have already enrolled 624 new students against a goal for the year of 650. I expect at least another 200 new graduate students will enroll in the spring term.

RE: Student Organization Advisors Needed—Volunteer Positions

Greetings:

Would you like to be involved with our students' lives in a different way? Would you like to help shape their experiences here at La Salle University? The answer to these questions may be serving as a volunteer advisor to a student organization!

An important aspect of student involvement and success at La Salle University is the active participation in our 110+ clubs and organizations. Students gain much in terms of leadership development, knowledge of group dynamics, time management, the ability to overcome challenges and more. A key ingredient in this process is the role a volunteer advisor plays.

Several of our groups, including fraternities, sororities, club sports, service, media, academic and more, are in need of advisors. The advisor's role can vary depending on the group, the level of student leadership and growth of the group over the years, and the current challenges and goals of the group. Below is an idea of what might be expected of an advisor. Advisors and groups should discuss expectations of each party and decide what is best.

The role of an advisor:

Mentor...coaching, supporting, advising, asking challenging questions, helping group leaders learn, grow and develop.

Some tasks for an advisor may include:

- Various meetings with the organization leaders and members
- Attend 2-3 organization events per semester
- Advise on developmental activities including retreat planning, goal-setting meetings and more
- Advise on any university policies

Resources for advisors are plentiful, and are readily available from my office.

I strongly encourage you to consider this role. Please contact me with any questions, and I hope to hear from you soon!

Department of History

October 11, 2003

The History Department, Student Historical Society, and La Salle University cordially invite you to our annual Fall Symposium on Saturday, October 11th, 2003.

The speaker for this event will be Dr. Paul Steege of Villanova University, who will discuss the social aspects of “Cold War Berlin – A City Divided.”

During the course of his talk, Dr. Steege will explore the impact of the political division of Berlin between 1945-89 on the everyday life of the city's residents. By drawing from various primary and secondary sources, Dr. Steege will attempt to gauge the effect the political division had on both Berlin's economic and cultural life. In particular, he will be focusing on the period after 1961 and the construction of the Wall.

The presentation will begin at 12:30 PM. Guests should begin arriving at around 12:00 PM. Parking will be available in the main visitors' lot next to the Hayman Athletic Center. Signs with directions will be posted.

We hope to see you October 11th.

Re: Spring Requisitions

Textbook requisition forms for the Spring 2004 semester are being forwarded to your department chairperson. We request that the completed forms be returned to us by October 24, 2003.

Please keep in mind that we establish this date to allow time to organize our buy-back, which is December 8th to December 12th and to process orders to the publishers. If we have an order for the Spring semester, we can purchase a book from the student at 50% of purchase price. Without an order, we must purchase for a book wholesaler at 20-25%. Books purchased at Buyback are our main source of used texts to sell for the next semester.

We are asking for your cooperation so that we may place our orders early and avoid out of stock problems that arise with late orders.

Your Cooperation in getting your Textbook Requisitions in as soon as possible will be greatly appreciated.
